STATION MASTER'S NOTES

Well it's nearly PANTO time, something to look forward to, but looking back to 2017; a great year for HIADS. Well done to Vicky for organising an excellent workshop on 18th November and for the very well managed reading and casting for George III, our March 2018 play.

After Cinderella, we have some exciting visitors coming to the theatre. In January we welcome back the award winning CCADS with another musical spectacular, followed by Spooked at the beginning of February, a musical based on the film Casper the ghost. Following that we welcome a real jazz professional, Elaine Delmar and the Brian Dee Band. Elaine is one of our greatest jazz singers, and has appeared on TV, films, West End and Broadway theatres, the Albert Hall, concert halls and jazz clubs around the world.

Volunteer at Station Theatre

Come join us as a new Volunteer for FoH or on the ticket desk in the mornings, They are very friendly and always need help - we're not just 'actors' at HIADS! Give us a ring on 023 9246 6363.

The Madness of George III Set in 1788 - 1789

We are searching for a Prince of Wales to cast in Alan Bennett's award-winning play 'The Madness of George III' in March 2018. This funny, and at times, poignant look at the king's first descent into madness in 1788 requires twenty men to play the court, the doctors and the politicians. So far we have cast fourteen of them and are now looking for the Prince of Wales ('Prinnie', later the Prince Regent and George IV), an equerry, two pages, a politician and the Duke of York (Prinnie's younger brother).

If you are interested in taking part, either on your own or contributing to a shared display please contact. Lesley Vincent. 023 92358010. lesley.a.vincent@icloud.com.
