On Now

November Play "Murder in Play" by Simon Brett
Director Alan Hoad

A Comedy murder mystery 2nd to 9th Nov

Boris Smolensky's budget repertory production of "Murder at Priorswell Manor" is looking decidedly shaky. The cast are more interested in their egos than the play and life imitates art when Boris's wife, Renee, is murdered on stage.

Simon Brett's hilarious show, a worthy companion to his Charles Paris theatrical thriller novels, ruthlessly satirizes the politics of the inept company and the numerous red herrings will keep you guessing all through the play.

White Cobra Stepping Out 16th November 7:30pm

The play features eight individuals from various backgrounds and with differing motivations who attend the same weekly tap-dancing class. They develop a level of skill and cohesiveness. The dance routines are the background for the focus of the play, which focuses on the relationships and interactions of different people

HIADS March 2020 Love Song

Directed By Scott Hawley

Love is a leap of faith. Abi Morgan's play Lovesong takes an interesting look through the highs and lows of married life as we follow William and Margaret's struggles. The show's surreal approach elevates the situation to a whole new level.
